

Introduction to Coronary Care Nursing

Target group: Qualified nurses working on a coronary care or cardio care unit

On completion of the course you will be able to:

- Practice patient care with the medical knowledge necessary for a coronary care department.
- Organize and coordinate the patient care from a professional point of view in close cooperation with other disciplines.

Content:

Theory

Patient need analysis
Patient data analysis
Observations
Anamnesis
Formulate objectives of care
Reporting
Nursing diagnosis
Formulation of Nursing care results
Nursing interventions
Observations and watching over patients
ICU nursing and care
Circulation disorders
Breathing difficulties
Problems with the neurologic system
Complex lung disorders
Specific cardiac disorders

Practical

Nursing techniques in coronary care:
Circulation disorders
Breathing difficulties
Problems with the neurologic system
Complex lung disorders
Specific cardiac disorders