Medical Information Technology

Target group: Biomedical Engineers / Technicians working in a hospital maintenance workshop with proven ICT skills.

On completion of the course you will be able to:
- Different ICT developments in hospitals
- Hospital decision support systems
- Practice with Hospital decision support systems
- Maintain Hospital decision support systems

Content:
- This part is centered round the ICT developments in hospitals. Communication, Information databases and maintenance.

- The development and practice of decision support systems are part of this module.