

Musculoskeletal Ultrasound

Target group: Rheumatologist, residents in rheumatology, orthopaedic surgeons, residents in orthopaedic surgery, physiotherapists, radiologists and radiographers.

On completion of the course you will be able to:

- Perform musculoskeletal ultrasound
- Apply methodical scanning protocol
- Identify normal anatomy of the upper & lower extremities
- Identify pathology
- Write reports

Content:

Physics of ultrasound you need to know

Instrumentation

Anatomy of the upper extremity,

Including hands-on:

Shoulder

Elbow

Wrist

Anatomy of the lower extremity,

Including hands-on:

Hip

Knee

Ankle

Identify common pathology

Identify artefacts

Report writing